

A SCEPTIC'S MUSINGS.

It is a something that clings to the heart,
A feeling that we cannot repress,
A thought that lingers in the brain,
A memory that we cannot lose.
It is a something that we have
That we cannot explain,
A feeling that we have
That we cannot explain.
It is a something that we have
That we cannot explain,
A feeling that we have
That we cannot explain.

BRANDON BUDGET.

Seven cases of merchandise arrived at the depot yesterday.

The quindile assembly met in the hall of the Murray block to night at 8 o'clock.

A meeting of the Agricultural Society took place in the Royal Hotel on Monday evening. Two cases of amputation—the result of a tree fall—came to us from Turtle Mountain.

Seventeen bags of mail matter arrived at the post office on Monday. Twelve bags went out the same day for Rapid City.

The Elmer Ross, of Elmer settlement, are making arrangements to convey 15,000 bushels of wheat to the market in this city next week.

The county council sat last night. They arrived early in the evening and met in the Grand View where they had supper with Warren Scott.

Doctors will remember that luncheon is served in the Grand View for the city, the only one in Brandon will be under the old Act.

The concert to be given by the French comes off on Thursday evening at the Immigrant Reception House. The French intend giving a treat and to make it the event of the season.

An Indian was brought in to day from Rapid City on his way to Turtle Mountain, to serve a term of imprisonment, extending over 5 years, for committing rape on a young girl at that place.

An ex-convict was put up at the Grand Central on Monday evening. It was on the occasion of the anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Day, chief bookkeeper in that popular hotel. Many of his friends gathered and engaged in songs, toasts, etc., suitable for the occasion. After a pleasant time together they dispersed, all wishing Mr. Day many happy returns.

Mr. Scott, of Sioux City, and Warren for Brandon, returned to their homes near their premises, by means of a beautiful white owl. The bird measures 5 feet 6 inches from tip to tip of wings, is fully grown, and is a splendid specimen. Mr. Scott intends presenting it to Mr. Piper, of the Toronto Zoo. It is at present lying caged at the express office, where it can be seen up till 12 noon.

The Rev. C. Duff, M.A., of Toronto, who is the chaplain, or minister, of the Congregational Mission, of Ontario and Quebec, has been for the past few days the guest of J. E. Woodworth, Esq. The rev. gentleman's report, made at the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church this evening and leaves to-morrow morning for Portage la Prairie, Man. who heard his earnest words on Sabbath evening last will be glad to be present at the prayer meeting to-morrow.

As Mr. James Duff, Crown Timber Inspector, was surveying yesterday a lot, at the corner of Princess Avenue and Sixth Street, the teams of Mr. Whitehead hauling wood. He immediately stopped them and in the Queen's name seized the wood. The owners took it to impound upon him that the wood was taken off a Hudson's Bay section owned by them but Mr. Duff didn't "catch on," and just then Chief McMillen appeared on the scene and tried to explain matters but very effectively. However, as Mr. Duff persisted in his claim.

Hope Hay, a young man from England, and whose parents reside there, was brought in from South Lake yesterday by a party of men from South Lake, who were on their way bringing him to the Winnipeg asylum. He has for some time been very despondent, but lately grew so violent that he had to be chained down with a great six men with long chains. Just as the rig was being about him, he made a dash from the stable, and smothering an axe, ran about the principal street, threatening to kill anyone who would touch him. He was captured, but not until he had done considerable damage, but not until he was captured, close contact with him, when one of them hit him a blow on the head with a club, thus disarming him. Nothing is attributed to the cause of his insanity, except that, being so far from home, he got homesick and grew despondent.

TRIP TO TURTLE MOUNTAIN.

Messrs. F. L. Newman and H. P. Byers, M.D., have just returned from a trip to Turtle Mountain. They left Brandon about 10 a.m. Sunday, and reached Plum Creek, where they remained all night. Next day they proceeded on their trip, and darkness accompanied by a snow storm came upon them, about twenty miles from the town. They found it impossible to keep the trail, and having made themselves as comfortable as possible, put up for the night in the snow, where they passed a very unpleasant night. The wind was very biting, and the snow kept drifting. The M.D. was rather badly frozen, but on this occasion Newman escaped. Next day they stayed at a house about eight miles from Deltona, and on Wednesday morning finding their trail drifted, they took their snow shoes and proceeded for Mr. Kellers via Geo. Morton and arrived at the former place about noon, having traveled from their starting point, and although it was impossible to travel over a hundred yards, according to Messrs. M.D. Morton arrived on snow shoes, having faced the storm a distance of eight miles. In the afternoon they proceeded to Deltona, a distance of four miles. On their arrival a genuine blizzard came on, and owing to the absence of a trail for their teams, with which Mr. Ketter drove them to that place, they were left in the blinding storm, and had it not been for the splendid abilities of the horses for trail detecting, they could not have reached their destination.

Next day they started to drive across White Water Lake, and a storm more frightful than the preceding one burst almost suddenly upon them, and the cold was intense. They had the utmost difficulty in crossing the lake, and consider their escape almost miraculous. After an exposure of nearly five hours to this savage blizzard, they arrived at Mr. Morton's where they gladly put up for that night, and next day the storm had ceased and they found no further difficulty in finishing their journey, which almost ended fatally. These gentlemen say that they were very much surprised to be treated to what they pronounce an almost complete recital of Gilbert and Sullivan's popular opera Patience by the Morton boys, headed by Capt. Andrew Morton, who is a splendid baritone singer, and who formerly belonged to the Kingston Glee Club, the first to put the opera on the boards in Canada.

Becher's Money.

One of the mysteries of the age is what Henry Ward Becher has done with his money. At one time he was in receipt of $20,000 from his church, $10,000 from his newspaper, $20,000 from his lecturing and $10,000 from marriage fees, literary works and his books, making a total of $60,000 a year. Yet Becher never had any money to spare. His household was modest, not extravagant; he gave nothing that was likely to clarify, and yet he was always in debt. When he wanted to help Tilton he gave a mortgage upon his house, and now he has sold his house, furniture and buildings and gone to live with a married son. He told me he did this because the young birds had all grown up and flown out of the nest, and yet it was a marvel that in his old age he should leave his comfortable home upon the Heights of Brooklyn and go into narrow quarters as a boarder. He spoke with a sigh and very evident regret at the breaking up of his old home. This was strange, but the unfinished story in regard to the farmer, Thomas Turner, at Peshawar, is still more strange. When Turner died Mr. Becher took charge of his papers, and found a large number of them, among which, it is alleged, were a number of promissory notes. The whole thing has a queer look, and the question which agitates newspaper men is where has all the money he has made in the last century, amounting to millions, gone to? Perhaps it is one of those mysteries that no follow out and out, but the curiosity of the natural man will prompt him to find out the undiscovered channel through which it flows.—Philadelphia Record.

Work.

There is no remedy for trouble equal to hard work—labor that will tire you, physically, to such an extent that you must sleep. If you have met with losses, you don't want to be awake and think about them. You want sleep, calm, and sleep—and to eat your dinner with an appetite. But you can't unless you work.

As exchange says: "Streams all over the country are running dry." This is a quandary. When a stream is dry it can't run.

If an untruth is only a day old it is called a lie; if it is a year old it is called a falsehood; but if it is a century old it is called a legend.

CONGRESSMEN have a way of utilizing the mails to their own profits. That is frank.

HARRIED.
